

Earth-Kind® Fruit Tree Seminar

For Backyard Gardeners, School & Community
Gardens, Arborists, Green Industry Professionals, and Small Acreage Producers

January 24, 2020 (Friday)

San Antonio Botanical Garden
(Educational Room)

555 Funston Place · San Antonio, Texas

8:35am — 5:10pm

7:45am — 8:30am check in

Cost: $50/person

(Includes light breakfast, lunch, & snacks)

Peaches, Blackberries, Citrus, Grapes, and More Selecting, Planting, & Maintenance
Common Insects, Diseases, & Control

Register Now!

<https://agrilliferegister.tamu.edu/Bexar County>

3 CEUs for TDA Pesticide

Private, Non-Commercial & Commercial Pesticide Applicators
Integrated Pest Management: 1
General: 2

International Society of Arboriculture CEUs

Certified Arborist: 6
Municipal Specialist: 6
BCMA-Practice: 5
BCMA-Management: 1

7 CEUs for Texas Nursery Landscape Association and Master Gardener

Earth-Kind® Fruit Tree Seminar
 January 24, 2020
 San Antonio Botanical Garden
 Tentative Agenda

7:45 – 8:30	Registration
8:35 – 8:45	Welcome and Introduction David Rodriguez, Horticulturist-Bexar County
8:45 – 9:50	Peaches, Nectarines, Apricots, and Oriental Persimmons Selection, Planting, & Maintenance Dr. Larry Stein, Associate Dept. Head Professor, Extension Horticulturist
10:00 – 10:50	Blackberries, Figs, and Pomegranates Selection, Planting, & Maintenance Beth McMahon, Horticulturist-Gillespie County
11:00 – 12:00	Common Fruit Tree Insects and their Controls Wizzie Brown, Integrated Pest Management Program Specialist
12:00 – 12:45	Lunch
12:50 – 1:45	Common Fruit Tree Diseases and their Controls Dr. Kimberly Cochran, Assistant Professor & Extension Plant Pathologist
1:45 – 2:00	Break
2:00 – 2:50	Citrus and Bananas Selection, Planting, & Maintenance David Rodriguez, Horticulturist-Bexar County
3:00 – 3:50	Grapes, Olives, and Pears Selection, Planting, & Maintenance Andrew Labay, San Antonio Botanical Garden-Horticulturist
3:50 – 4:00	Evaluations
4:00 – 5:00	Fruit Tree Species Observations-Outside

